We carry a full stock of W. A.
Mount & Co's. best candies.
J. J. OSBORN.

WANTED!
10,000 lbs. of good roll butter and 1,000 dozen eggs at CHAS. F. NOBLE'S.

The year 1890 is about gone and it is time for people to settle up their accounts. I have lots of money due me that should have been paid long ago.
Now I want everybody who owes me to call and settle. If it is impossible to pay cash give me your note. Now don't stay away and cause me the trouble and expense of sending a collector to call on you.
J. J. FRIBLEY.

A few more Cook Stoves than we want for our own use. Will give you one-half of the profits for the next 30 days.
McELHINEY & SON.

Don't fail to attend the grand bean count at Tucker's store New Year's day at 1 o'clock.

Half the profits given to parties buying Cook Stoves of us in the next 30 days.
McELHINEY & SON.

Beginning January 2, 1891, Wade & Barcafer will open their gallery for one more week in Baxter. Everybody should avail themselves of this last chance to get a good dozen photographs at the low prices they offer.

Given to the party who buys a Gem Cook Stove of us in the next 30 days —one-half the profits.
McELHINEY & SON.

Wonder who will get the big doll at Tucker's store New Year's day at 1 o'clock?

GIVEN AWAY!

get a pair of those all clamp steel lever Skates for one dollar.

LIGHT RATHER THAN DARKNESS!
If you want to see the best burner and the cheapest lamp you ever heard of please call at my store and be convinced. This celebrated burner will give more light than a half dozen ordinary lamps.
J. J. FRIBLEY.

SHODDY! SHODDY! SHODDY!
No wonder people are hard up. Almost everything they buy is shoddy.
McElhiney & Son are making some good old fashioned heavy flware.

I am not only selling the best, but the lowest priced Stoves found anywhere, quality considered. The Stoves speak for themselves and the prices talk. I have sold lots of Stoves this season and I have lots more still on hand and on the road. I make a price that sells the goods quick.
J. J. FRIBLEY.

The days begin to grow a little longer now.

Tonight will be game night at the library instead of Thursday night.

It wasn't a real lively, rollicking Christmas like we used to have, was it?

The men in this section of the country are sucking their thumbs pretty considerably.

The News is published one day late this time on account of this being Christmas week.

Seneca is talking of building a smelter to take care of the ores produced by her mines.

A number of fellows filled up on "tamarack" Christmas eve and Christmas day and got quite noisy.

The grand bean count for the big doll will occur at J. E. Tucker's store at 1 o'clock on New Year's day.

The managers of the New Year's ball at Koontz hall are busy completing arrangements for a grand time.

L. C. Goodner will pay the highest market price for butcher's stock. Enquire at Drovers and Farmers bank.

Go to Koontz hall next Wednesday night and dance the old year out and the new year in. It will be a happy event.

Grand ball and supper at Koontz hall in this city New Year's eve—next Wednesday night. Everybody is invited to attend.

Let our people prepare a warm reception for the teachers of southeast Cherokee county at their meeting in Baxter January 17.

Our notice of a basket supper at Blue Mound should have read "on Tuesday evening, Dec. 30, 1890." See it in another column.

"The Devil" is the subject of the lecture to be given at Lowell next Tuesday evening by Rev. J. F. Kellogg of Ft. Scott. Admission 10 cents.

The young people of this vicinity will endeavor to usher the New Year in with appropriate greetings at their New Year's eve dance at Koontz hall.

The Christian Sunday school children had their usual Christmas social and supper at the new church Wednesday evening which was a grand success.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ohlen made the hearts of the News family throb with gladness Christmas morning by the presentation of a nice fruit cake and other delicacies.

Rev. J. F. Kellogg of Ft. Scott, will lecture under the auspices of the Lowell Literary League at Lowell next Tuesday evening. Subject, "The Devil." Admission 10 cents.

Our new artist, Mr. M. W. Barcafer, is spending the holidays in Clinton, Mo., basking in the smiles and sunshine of his best girl; while his partner M. W. Wade is visiting friends in Hutchinson, Kan.

From the Lamar, Mo., Democrat we learn of the death of little Della Mc-Kay Bridges, who a little more than a year ago took quite a prominent part in the literary exercises of the soldiers reunion at this place.

Geo. J. Smith, our excellent stone mason, returned home the past week, after having completed several large foundation contracts at Joplin, including the finest and best one built there during the past summer.

The pupils of Miss Addie Dangleide in the public school presented her on Christmas eve with the handsomest and most expensive album that could be bought in this city as a token of remembrance and reward for her efforts in their behalf.

Among the startling railroad rumors afloat is one to the effect that the Missouri Pacific company will extend their line from Grand Falls, south of Joplin, to the Peoria mines; also that the Memphis line will be extended next spring from this city to Seneca via the Peoria mines. If so well and good.

THE BEAN COUNT.

Those who have taken guesses on the big doll to be given away by J. E.
Tucker are hereby notified to be present at the store at 1 o'clock on next Thursday, New Year's day, when the committee will proceed to count the beans in the lamp and the person who has guessed nearest to the actual number of beans inside the lamp will get the doll. In case of tie the matter must be settled by the parties themselves.
This doll is a very fine one valued at $7.50 and whoever gets it will receive a present worth having. Don't fail to be present when the count is made.
